All classes are worth 3 credits. MLA 6000, MLA 6010, and MLA 6020 are available online or in the classroom, depending on the semester. They can be taken at the same time or in any order; you can take MLA 6020 before 6010. All 6 electives must be at the 6000 (graduate) level, and you must take at least 1 elective in at least 2 different fields. If you take 5 ENGL classes, the last elective should be HIST, SOCI—anything but ENGL. You can do 3 ENGL, 2 SOCI, and 1 GEOG—any combination of 6. If you want to be eligible to teach a certain field on the college level at AUM or elsewhere, you need to take 6 electives in 1 field and a 7th elective that covers another field. Because all classes are 3 credits, you graduate with 3 core classes, 6 electives, and the thesis—a total of 30 hours.
