General description

The Division of International Studies offers a minor that will serve to prepare students for study abroad, careers in industry, government and philanthropy, as well as for graduate and professional programs.

Required Course

Required:

1. The Intermediate series: SPAN 2010, 2020 (8 hours)
2. Select two upper level courses from the list of approved elective courses below (6 hours)

Elective Courses (select courses to total at least 6 semester hours)

A student with a minor in Spanish will complete at least fourteen credit hours consisting of two courses at the 2000-level and two at the 3000-level or higher; none, however, may also be used to satisfy the requirements for a student's major. A student may opt to test out of the intermediate level courses by taking a written proficiency test in the coordinator's office.

Students must pass all coursework with at least a C.
